GREAT COMMISSION SCHOOLS

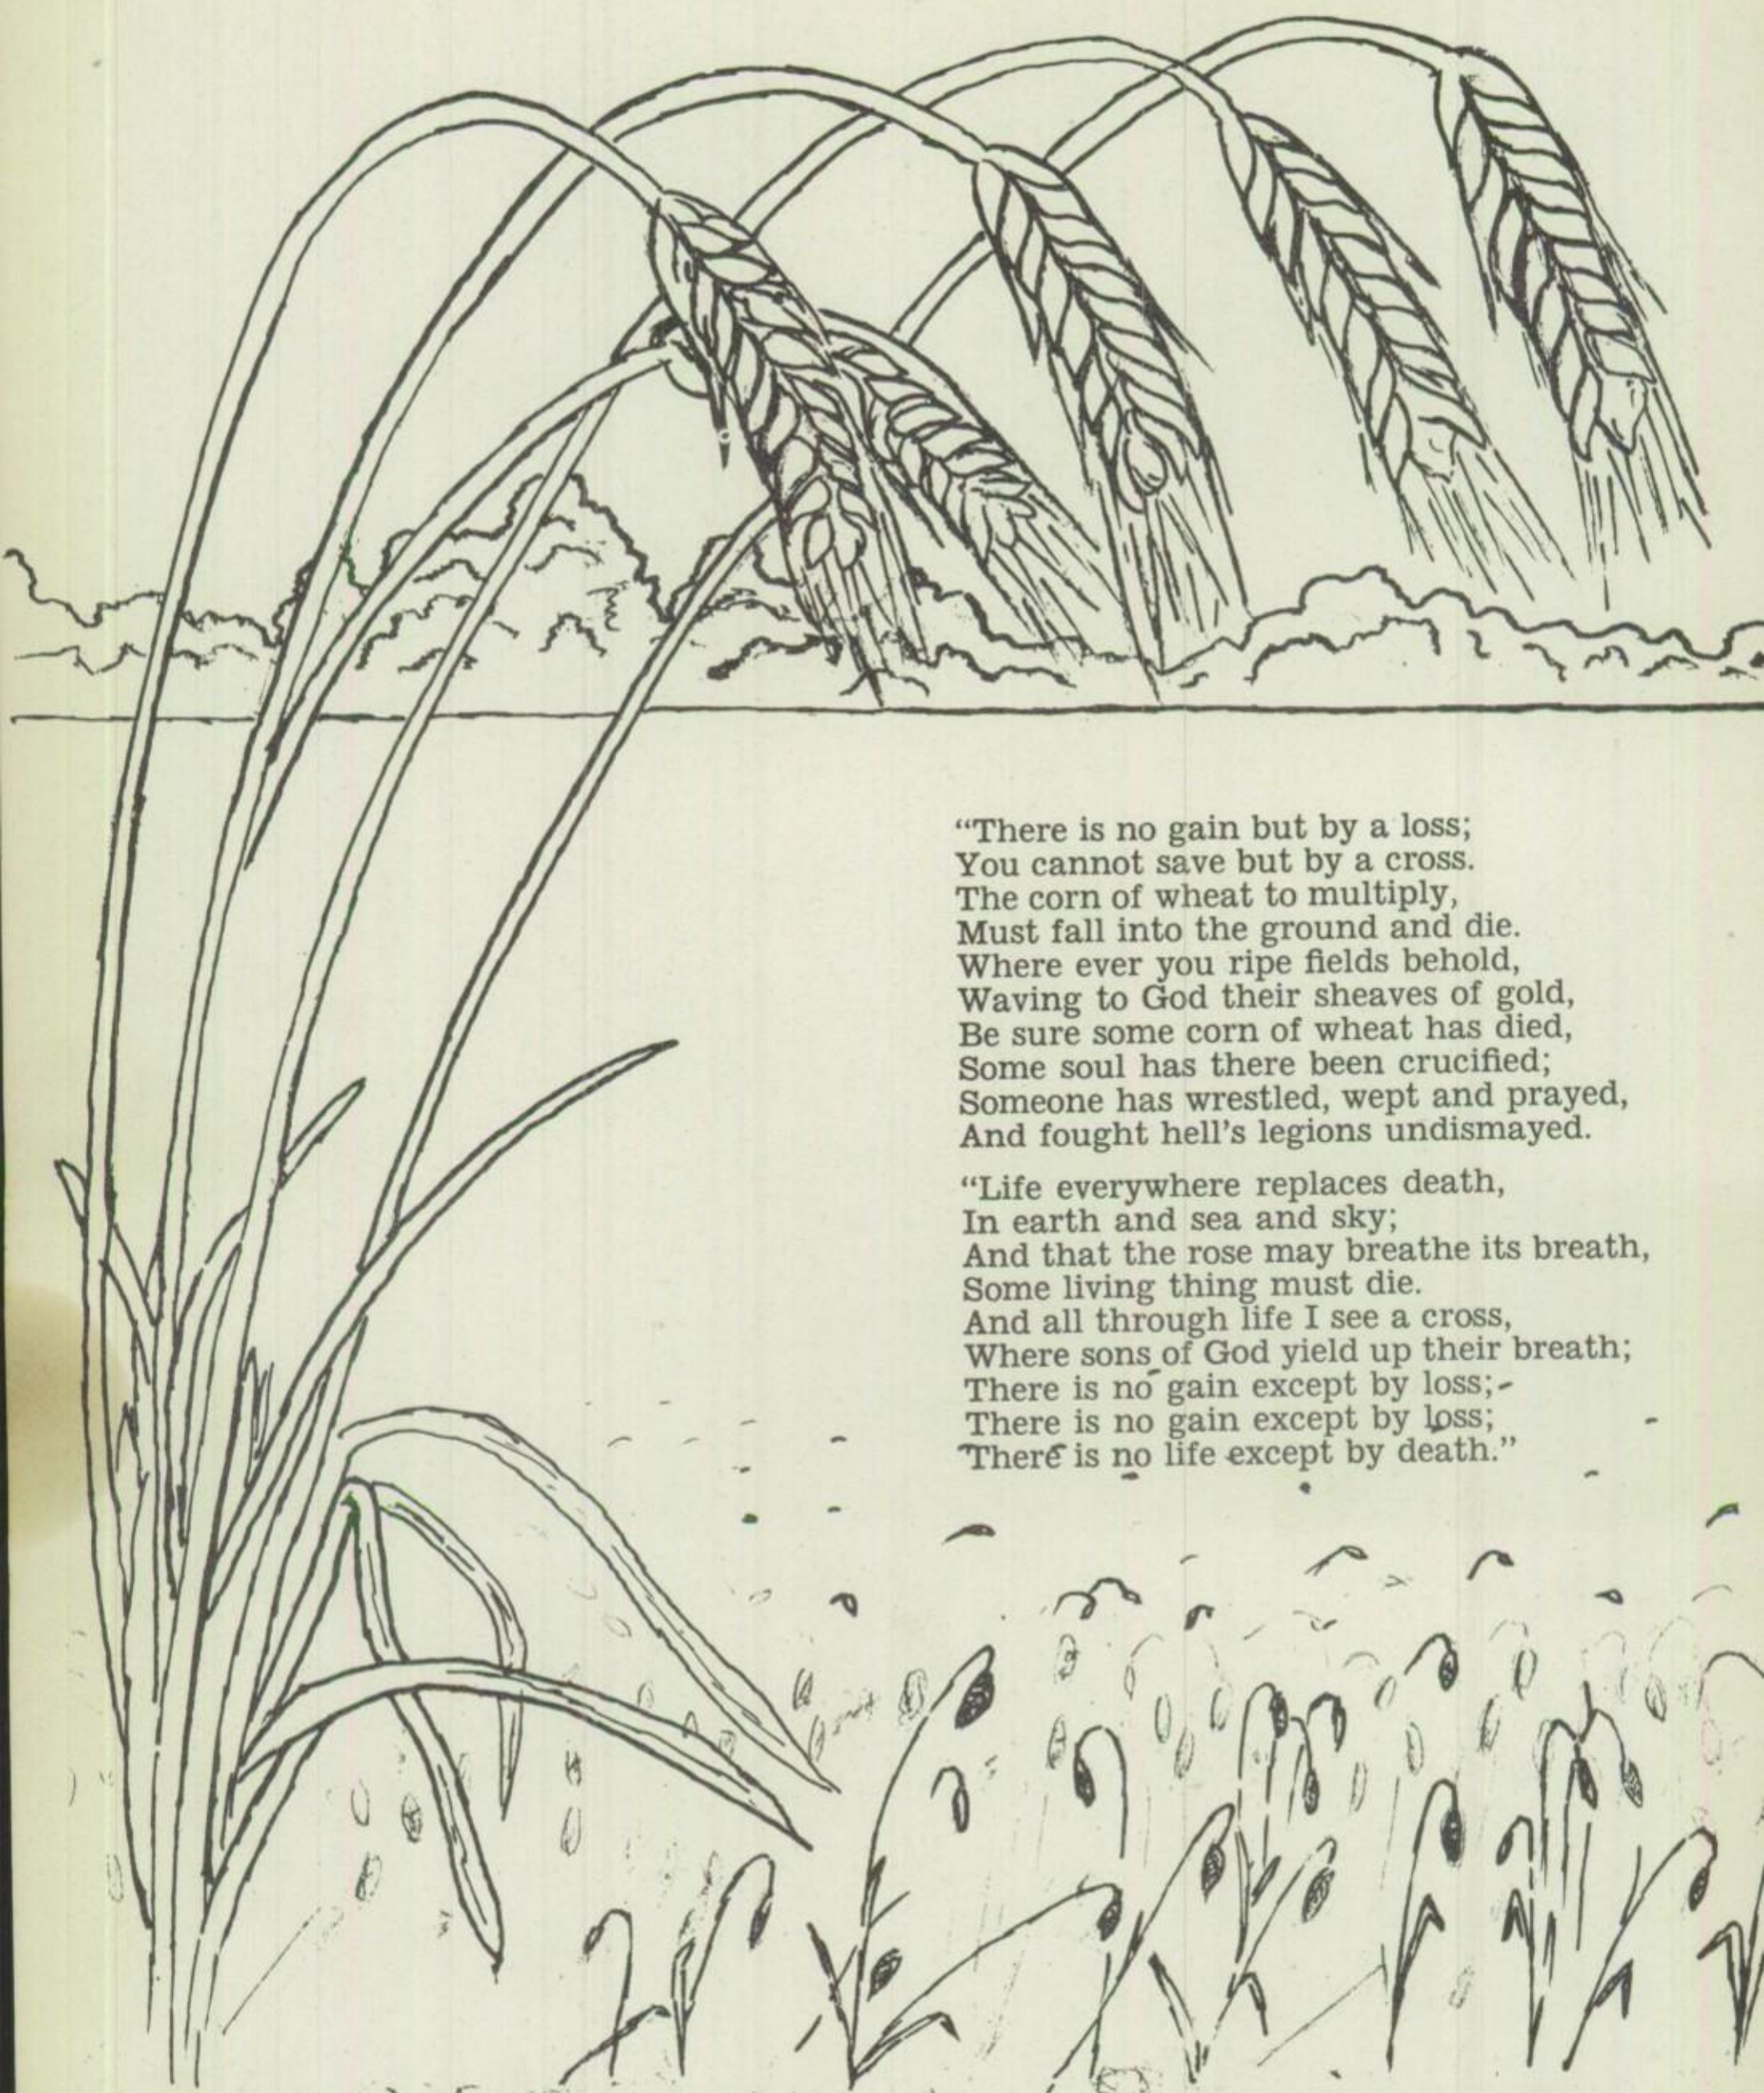

ANDERSON, INDIANA

Poured Forth blood forever pleads
Before the throne
With fervent intercession.
Authority to us is given
To enforce claims — THE WORLD our Possession.

From the winepress of the soul
Comes submission —
“Not my will but Thine.”
Pressed, crushed, bruised, and broken,
We unfold God's changeless love
To mankind.

“Ah, wouldn't thou save these souls from death?
Then thou must die, yield up the breath
Of thy self life, and, in such loss,
Relive the victory of the cross.”

"There is no gain but by a loss;
You cannot save but by a cross.
The corn of wheat to multiply,
Must fall into the ground and die.
Where ever you ripe fields behold,
Waving to God their sheaves of gold,
Be sure some corn of wheat has died,
Some soul has there been crucified;
Someone has wrestled, wept and prayed,
And fought hell's legions undismayed.

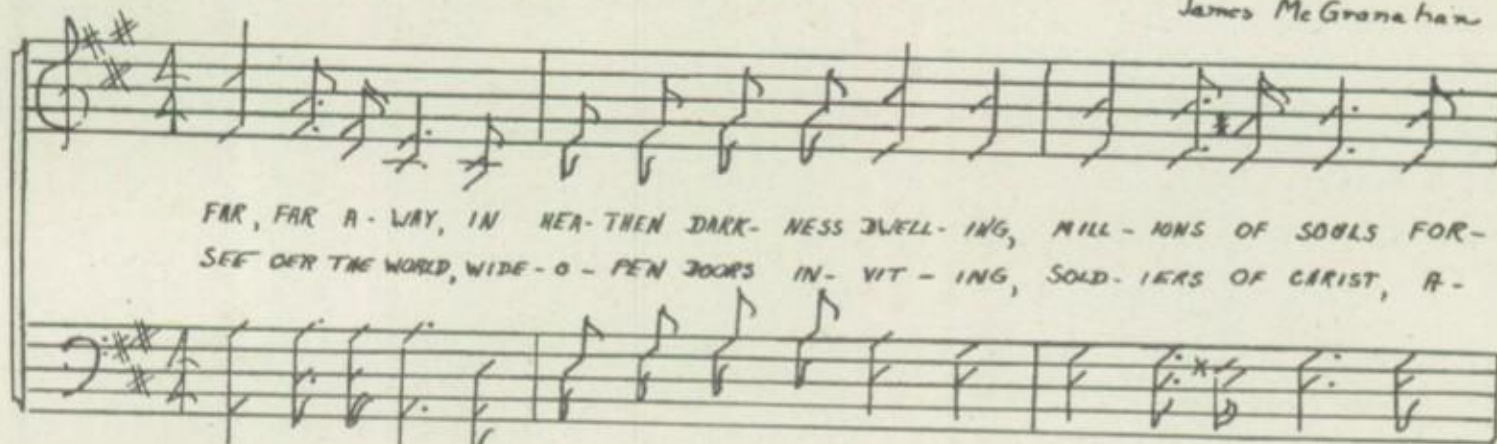

"Life everywhere replaces death,
In earth and sea and sky;
And that the rose may breathe its breath,
Some living thing must die.
And all through life I see a cross,
Where sons of God yield up their breath;
There is no gain except by loss;
There is no gain except by loss;
There is no life except by death."

"Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone, but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit."
—Jn. 12:24

Jesus said unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. —Matthew 16:24

DISCIPLESHIP means self-denial, cross bearing, and following Christ. The disciple has renounced self. He has affiliated himself with Holy Principles and Standards—thus all of his motivating purposes and energies are directed away from self, and he is clothed with the Spirit and Power of Christ.

THE WORLD is our possession, if we reclaim it from Satan's control. Upon the CROSS, the debt for every soul was cancelled. We must enforce Calvary's Claims and compel Satan's release of individuals and finances, and impel the continuous building of Christ's Kingdom within hearts.

After Christ's ascension, the disciples were responsible for the evangelization of the WORLD. The evangelization of the present WORLD depends upon the readiness of true discipleship. What if the disciples had failed after the giving of the Great Commission (Matt. 28:21)? What if we fail after the promise of indwelling of the Dynamic Power?

The compelling inward drive forces us into the regions beyond—into the darkened, untouched, unexplored areas of the globe. "The love of God Constrains Us" Go? Go, we must!

Great Commission Schools train young people to be loyal Ambassadors. These Ambassadors are nurtured in the principles of active faith, the study of the Word, and the practice of prayer. The courses have five main emphases:

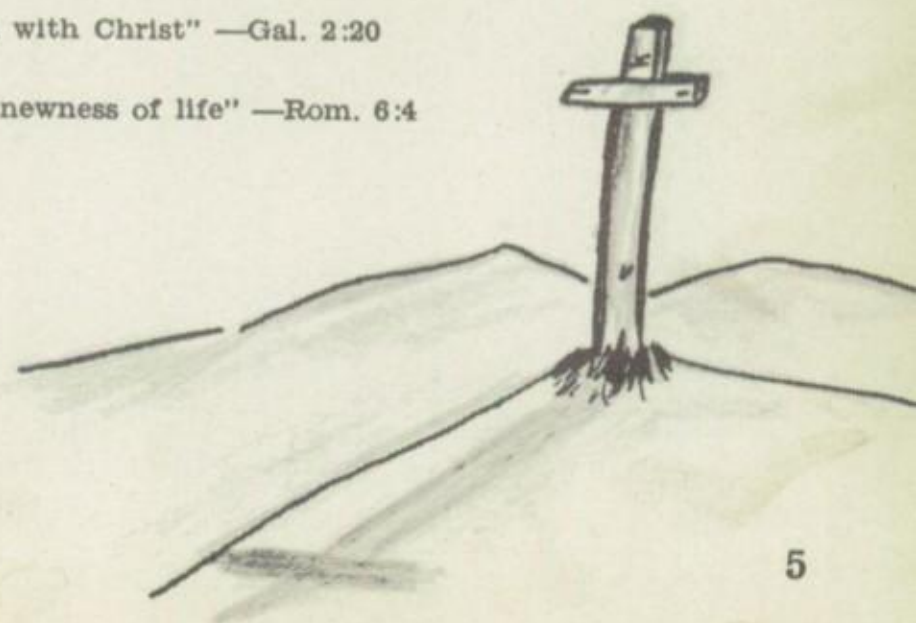

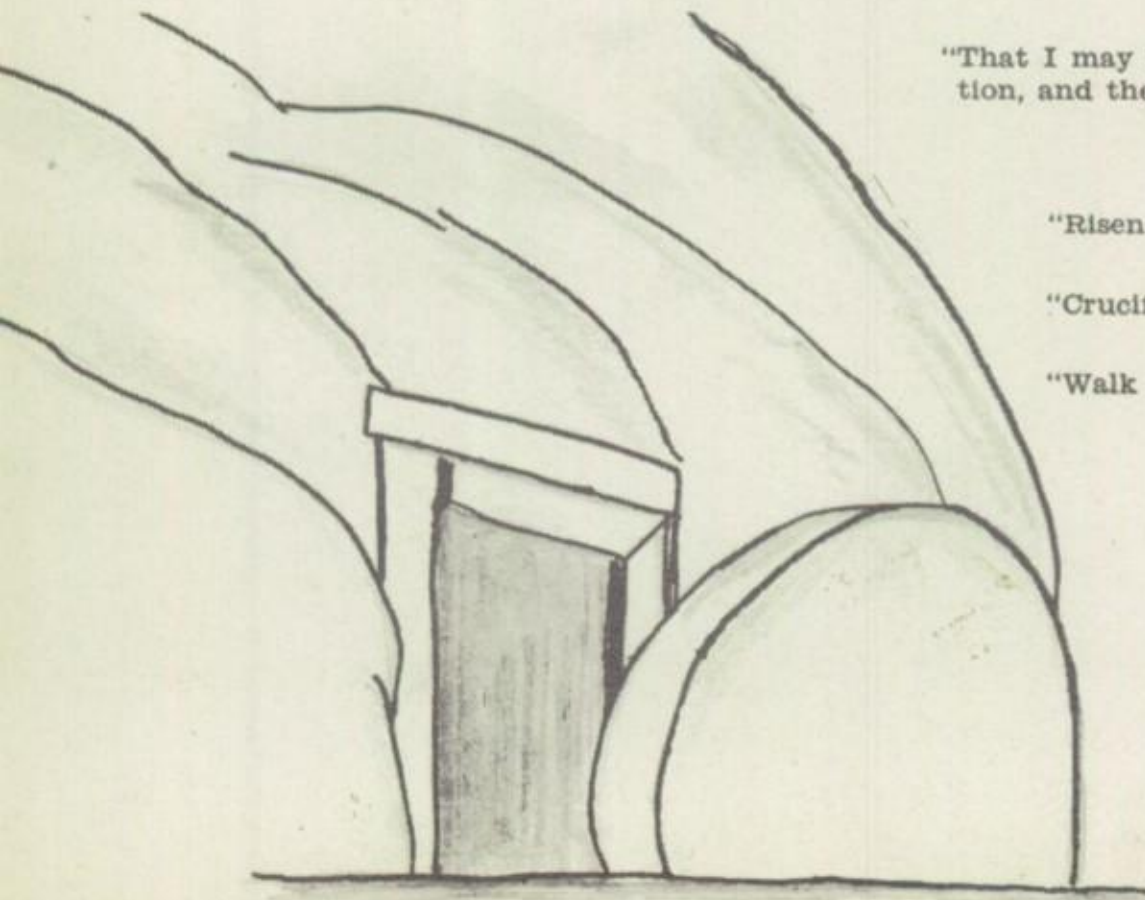

1. Direct Study of the Bible Text.
2. Gospel Music.
3. World Missions.
4. Child Evangelism.
5. Personal Evangelism.

"That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings."—Phil. 3:10

"Risen with Christ" —Col. 3:1

"Crucified with Christ" —Gal. 2:20

"Walk in newness of life" —Rom. 6:4

Left to right: Edwin Messerschmidt, W. H. Holland, Gordon Beck, Jack Stanley, William Abrams, William Dauch, Harold Speicher, F. M. Higgins, Kenneth C. Harting, Mrs. Paul E. Billheimer, Paul E. Billheimer, Roy Clinard, Walter Ward, Marvin Lewis, Emerson Polk, Virgil Broyless, Merritt Wildman.

For their sterling Christian character,
For their sacrifice of time and untiring service,
For their insistent, fervent prayers,
For their progressive vision and unwavering faith,
We sincerely dedicate this Crusader to the Board of Trustees of Great Commission Schools.

"Oh! the bitter shame and sorrow,
That a time could ever be,
When I let the Saviour's pity
Plead in vain, and proudly answered —
'All of Self and none of Thee.'

"Yet He found me: I beheld Him
Bleeding on the cursed tree;
Heard Him pray, 'Forgive them, Father,'
And my wistful heart and faintly —
'Some of Self and some of Thee.'

"Day by day His tender mercy,
Healing, helping full and free,
Sweet and strong, and oh! so patient,
Brought me lower while I whispered —
'Less of Self and more of Thee.'

"Higher than the highest heavens,
Deeper than the deepest sea;
Lord, thy love at last has conquered:
Grant me now my soul's petition —
'None of self and all of Thee.' "

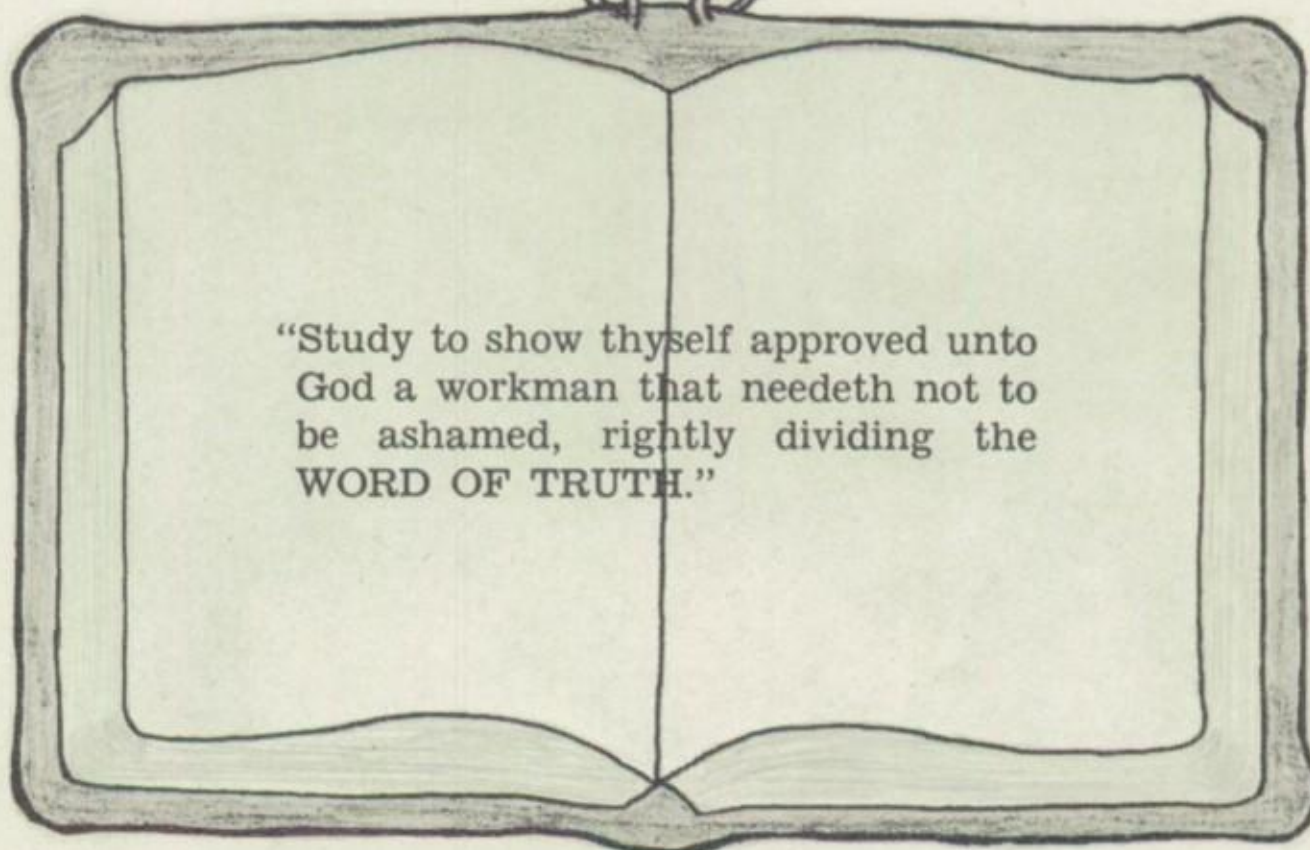

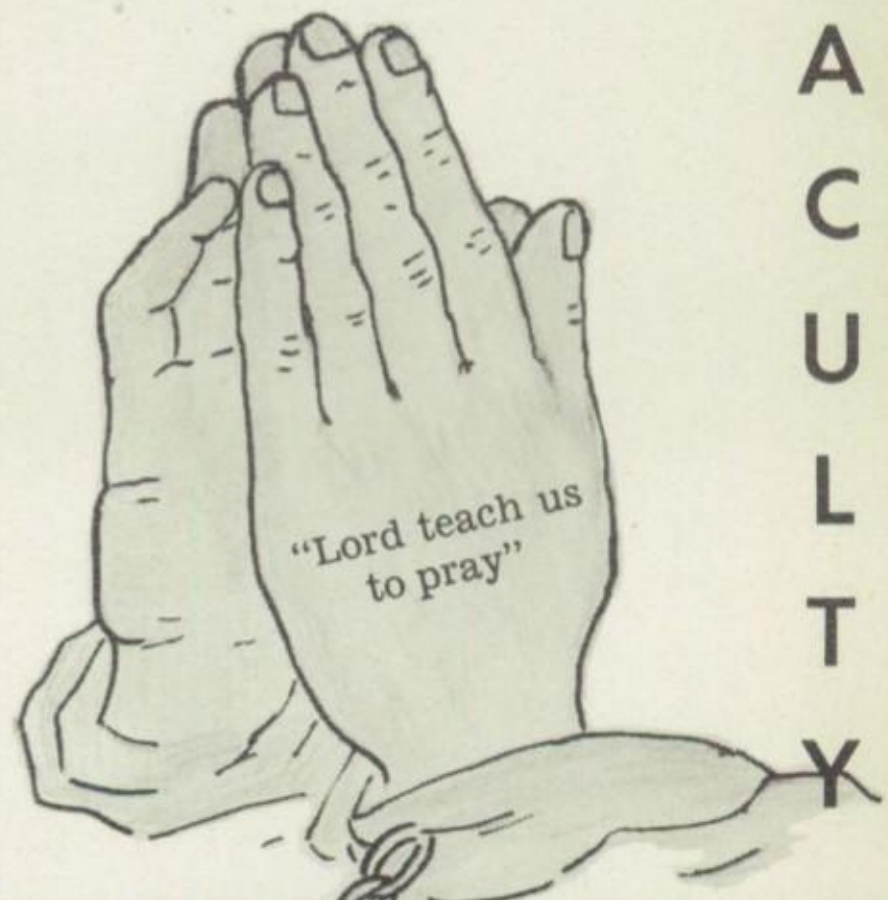

To the Students of Great Commission Schools –

It is said that when Spain was one of the great world powers, upon her coinage was printed the image of the Pillars of Hercules, and underneath were the words, "Ne plus ultra"—nothing beyond this. There was one man in that nation who refused to accept this. Urged on by the restlessness of his faith, he proved that an entire world, with unlimited treasure and wealth, lay beyond those pillars of Hercules.

It has been well said that the essence of carnality is a static condition, spiritual stagnation. There is no reason why any of us should not be world shaking characters, except that we are satisfied not to be.

J. Stuart Holden tells of the epitaph of a Swiss Guide who lost his life in an Alpine accident. That epitaph reads, "He died climbing". It is our prayers that God shall use Great Commission Schools to impart to you such faith-born aspiration that wherever your tombs may be, from the arctic to the tropics, your only fitting epitaph may be "He died climbing."

Hold high the torch!
You did not light its glow—
'Twas given you by other hands, you know.
'Tis yours to keep it burning bright,
Yours to pass on when you no more need light;
For there are other feet that we must guide,
And other forms go marching by our side.
Their eyes are watching every smile and tear
And efforts which we think are not worthwhile,
Are sometimes just the very helps they need,
Actions to which their souls would give most heed;
So that in turn they'll hold it high
And say, "I watched someone else carry it this way."
If brighter paths should beckon you to choose,
Would your small gain compare with all you'd lose?
Hold high the torch!
You did not light its glow—
'Twas given you by other hands, you know.
I think it started down its pathway bright,
The day the Maker said: "Let there be light."
And He, once said, who hung on Calvary's tree—
"Ye are the light of the world." . . . Go! . . . Shine—for me.

One of the very popular courses at Great Commission Schools has been the evening class designed for the general christian public. Each semester we offer a different course so that a variety of training for the layman is made available.

One of the most widely accepted courses ever offered was the class in Gospel Art offered first semester of this year. Rev. Noble Bodenhorn showed unusual ability not only in personal performance but also as an instructor. Many of the fifty registrants were putting their instruction into practical use in youth meetings long before the close of the semester. The chalk work which each student brought in on the closing night when each was analyzed and constructively criticized showed unusual achievement.

The Sunday School Workshop offered the second semester under the able leadership of Rev. Jack Stanley has been no less profitable. Sunday School officers and Youth leaders from the surrounding area have profited greatly from his store of successful experience as a Sunday School man.

Registrations in the evening classes list many towns within a radius of forty to fifty miles of Anderson.

PIONEER EVANGELISM is blazing new trails. The students of Great Commission Schools are possessed with the passion and zeal for claiming virgin territory for CHRIST. We must go into the interiors. We must invest our very lives for the saving of the lost.

May it be said of our students that they have become "Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ."

"HIS PLAN FOR US"

"When I stand at the judgment seat of Christ
 And He shows me His plan for me.
 The plan of my life as it ought to have been
 Had He had His way — and I see
 How I blocked Him here and I checked Him there
 And I would not yield my will —
 Will there be grief in my Saviour's eyes,
 Grief, though He loves me still?
 He would have me rich and I stand there poor,
 Stripped of all but His grace,
 While memory runs like a hunted thing
 Down the paths I cannot retrace.
 Then my desolate heart will well nigh break
 With the tears that I cannot shed;
 I shall cover my face with my empty hands,
 I shall bow my uncovered head.
 Lord of the years that are left to me
 I give them to Thy hand,
 Take me and break me, mould me anew,
 To the pattern Thou has planned."

Dedication and Initial Groundbreaking of GREAT COMMISSION FOREST — October 5, 1947

O God, Behold These Woods

Oh God, behold these woods,
The trees, the bush, the sod,
The everlasting sky above;
The whole is Thine, Oh God!

They are not ours this day;
We hold them but for Thee
To build, to use, to point the "Way."
Thine, thine, to always be.

God, grant that on this place
Thy blessings shall abide;
Thy love, Thy peace, Thy light, Thy grace—
Whatever may betide.

May many blessings flow
To souls o'er all the earth,
And many hearts be set aglow
And freed from sin and dearth.

Because from here shall shine
The "Light" the world doth need,
Oh God, what joy, what joy sublime
To plant for Thee the "Seed."

So bless, we pray, this place,
And hallow tree and sod;
And sanctify it by Thy grace
To be "The House of God." Amen.

OUR NEWEST BUILDING

The fastest growing department of Great Commission Schools, to date, is the graded department or Elementary School having reached a total enrollment this first year of 49. To our surprise and almost dismay, we discover that the two rooms set aside for this department are already far inadequate to meet the need.

Investigation by the President and the Board of Directors of Great Commission Schools disclosed the fact that all steel pre-fabricated buildings of the Quonset type which are being widely used in Colleges and Universities adapt themselves beautifully to educational needs and are at least one-half cheaper to construct.

Again this year, on our President's birthday, April 18, we broke ground for another new building, this time on the east side of the campus, directly in front of Pioneer Hall. A building birthday cake was planned with candles selling at $100.00 each. By the end of the Birthday month we celebrated with cakes carrying 27 of the 55 candles desired by that time. This provided sufficient funds with which to order the first unit of the planned building. At the present time the shell of the center section of the above sketch has been erected on Great Commission Campus. As the Lord provides, we plan to erect three or four class rooms before September to accomodate the Elementary school. This large center section provides ample chapel space and a 40 x 60 recreation room. The portable partition which separates these rooms may be removed for large annual events such as commencement and Youth Crusade.

You Are Always Welcome

From age to age enemies of the gospel have proclaimed that the church is dying, that it has lost its hold upon mankind, that ere long its temples will be forsaken. Yet many come and go from the house of God; and until all the redeemed shall gather about the throne of the Lamb in heaven, the followers of Christ will "enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise, be thankful unto him, and bless his name."
